Book Blurbs...by Victor Comisso

A Piece Of The World by Christina Baker Kline
An extraordinary historical novel based on the life of Christina Olsen, the disabled young woman in Andrew Wyeth's painting, Christina's World. A moving and beautiful book.
Find this book in the library at FIC/KLI or CD/FIC/KLI.

All The Time In The World by Caroline Angell
A gifted young music student takes a job as a nanny. She soon finds herself in life-changing circumstances. A smart and thoughtful story.
Find this book in the library at FIC/ANG.

The Girl Before by JP Delaney
Emma rents a sleek modern house in London. The owner, an architect, is exceedingly eccentric. Is she just a tenant or prey. A well-crafted suspense.
Find this book in the library at FIC/DEL.

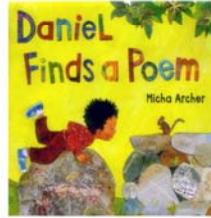

Days Without End by Sebastian Barry
Two dirt-poor Irish immigrants join the army in the 1850s to fight Indians and then the Confederacy. While containing some terribly sad material, it is a warm and haunting book.
Find this book in the library at FIC/BAR.

On Second Thought by Kristan Higgins
Two sisters, never very close, find comfort with each other when one is jilted and the other widowed.
Find this book in the library at LP/FIC/HIG.

This Is How It Always Is by Laurie Frankel
Rosie and Penn have five sons. It's a happy and nurturing home. Little Claude, however, doesn't like being a boy. Topical, thoughtful and thought provoking.
Find this book in the library at FIC/FRA.

Universal Harvester by John Darnielle
Set in a small town in Iowa, a video store clerk finds strange scenes have been inserted into returned VHS tapes. Interesting characters and story, dense meandering plot and an ambiguous ending.
Find this book in the library at FIC/DAR.

Little Book Of Hygge by Meik Wiking
The Danish people are said to be the happiest in the world (despite the climate). Make yourself a cup of hot cocoa and learn about the concept of hygge (pronounced hoo-ga).
Find this book in the library at 158.1/WIK.
