The Fates Divide by Veronica Roth

The sequel to the bestselling Carve the Mark, The Fates Divide follows Cyra and Akos who are confined by their futures, which were determined at birth. Despite these prophecies and the ominous feeling that his death is creeping ever nearer, Akos finds himself falling in love with Cyra. Together, the two resolve to stop the barbarian Lazmet's war . . . even if Cyra has to kill a man who may be her father.

Find it in the library at J/TEEN/ROT.

I Am Not Your Perfect Mexican Daughter by Erika L. Sanchez

Julia is everything a perfect Mexican daughter shouldn't be: a girl who wants to move away from her family and go to college. Olga had always been the perfect Mexican daughter, but after she dies in a tragic accident, Julia becomes the target for her mother's grief. That is, until Julia finds out that Olga may not have been as perfect as she appeared to be.

Find it in the library at J/TEEN/SAN or J/TEEN/CD/SAN.

Love & War: an Alex & Eliza Story by Melissa de la Cruz
Newlyweds Alexander Hamilton and Eliza Schuyler are forced to test the strength of their marriage as the Revolutionary War rages on. Alex is General Washington's right-hand man, which means Alex has responsibilities that tear him away from his wife. Additionally, jealousy and family drama threatens to strain Alex and Eliza's relationship even further.

Find it in the library at J/TEEN/DEL or J/TEEN/CD/DEL.

I Have Lost My Way by Gayle Forman

Three strangers are drawn together by chance after an accident. Freya loses her voice during recording for her debut album, Harun plans to flee from everyone he loves, and Nathaniel steps foot in New York City with nothing but a backpack and a plan. As the three begin to unravel the others' secrets, they realize that their own losses may be healed by helping each other.

Find it in the library at FIC/FOR.

“All the Money in the World”

Based on a true story, Michelle Williams stars as the mother of her kidnapped son, John. She must persuade John's billionaire grandfather to pay the ransom to the Mafia group behind the kidnapping, but the wealthy grandfather proves difficult to convince.

Find it in the library at DVD/ALL.

“The Greatest Showman”

Hugh Jackman stars as P.T. Barnum in this captivating film with spectacular musical numbers written by “Dear Evan Hansen” lyricists Benj Pasek and Justin Paul. A heartwarming, tear-jerker story about the creation of the circus, it is not a movie to be missed.

Find it in the library at DVD/GRE or BLUE/GRE.

If you're looking for something exciting for your family to do together this summer in the great outdoors while discovering the great parks of Lebanon County, Pennsylvania, we've got you covered! And best of all it's free and fun for all ages! Hunt for 15 activity posts hidden in parks and along trails in Lebanon County. Children follow clues available in their free GO and Make Music! musical score to locate each post. They then make a rubbing of the unique etching plate found at each post as a record of their “find.” The more activity posts you find, the better your chances are to win an exciting grand prize.

How to win:

- 3 or more etching rubs = small prize.
- 4-9 etchings = small prize + 1 entry to win a grand prize
- 10-14 etchings = small prize + 2 chances to win a grand prize
- Collect all 15 = small prize + 3 chances to win a grand prize

Grand prizes include: Ukulele Gift Pack, Gift Card to Dutch Apple Dinner Theatre, Gift Card to Paramount Sports Complex, Family Pass to Lebanon Valley YMCA, and Hershey Park in the Dark Family Pass.

Save the Date for these bonus events!
