PA primary elections are May 15

Although the voter registration deadline was April 16th for the upcoming primary election on May 15th, there is still a wealth of information to be found on candidates, polling places, and how to vote for everyone from new to experienced voters and how to vote if you've recently moved, have a disability, or own property in more than one county at votespa.com. Enter your address to find information specific to your location such as polling place and candidates running for local office. The Lebanon County Voter Registration Office also has information both at their office (Room 209, Municipal Building, 400 South 8th Street, in Lebanon) or online at lebcounty.org/depts/voter_registration/pages/default.aspx

Pennsylvania holds closed Primary Elections, meaning you must be a member of the party to vote for that party's candidate (for example, you could not vote in the Republican primary unless you are a registered member of the Republican Party). The candidates that receive the highest number of votes in the Primary Election will be the nominee representing their party on the General Election ballot.

What happens at the polls?

How do I find my polling place?

Your polling place location is printed on your voter registration card.

Call your county voter registration office at 717-228-4428

Look it up online at votespa.com/pollingplace.

When are the polls open on Election Day?

The polls are open from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. If you are in line when the polls close, you are entitled to vote.

Do I need any identification (ID) to vote?

Only voters who are voting for the first time in their election district need to show ID. Acceptable ID includes both photo and non-photo ID.

Acceptable photo IDs: Driver's license, U.S. passport, military ID, student ID, employee ID, any ID issued by the U.S. government or commonwealth agency.

Acceptable non-photo IDs: Voter registration card, firearm permit, current utility bill, current bank statement, current paycheck, government check, or any non-photo ID issued by the commonwealth or federal government.

Non-photo ID must have your address on it.

Can someone assist me at the polls?

You have the right to assistance if you cannot read or write; cannot read the names on the ballots; have difficulty understanding English; or are blind, disabled, or unable to operate the voting machine. You may request help from a relative, friend, neighbor, or another voter.

You do not need to be designated in the poll book-district register as "assistance permitted" to receive this assistance. If you want assistance, you must sign an Assistance Declaration, unless the poll book already indicates "assistance permitted." You also have the right to refuse assistance.
