JOIN US IN FIGHTING HUNGER!

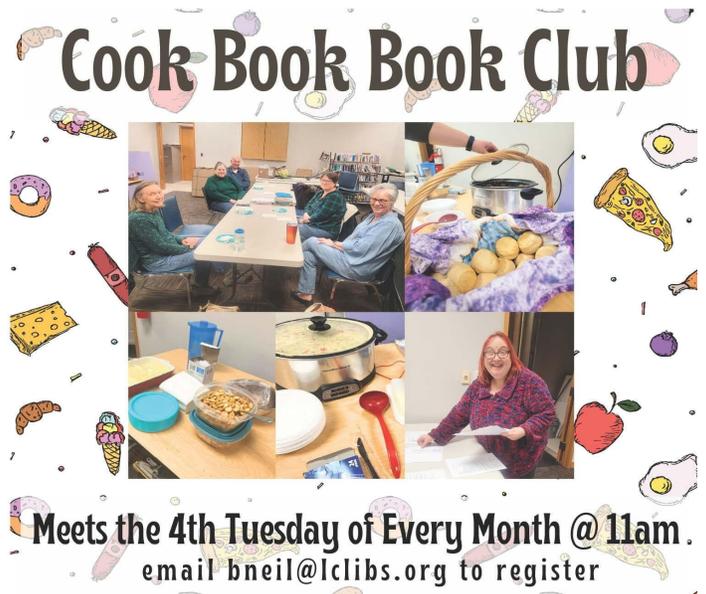

FOOD DRIVE

Lebanon County Libraries are collecting non-perishable food donations for local food pantries to help our community. Donations can be made at any library location, and every contribution aids in combating hunger. Thank you for your support!

Please donate non-perishable, in-date items to help fight hunger in our neighborhood. Check with your local library branch for the current wish list of items needed by nearby food pantries.

We've Got Mail!

In the 1960s, Lebanon Community Library librarian Frank Deodene wrote to prominent figures, inviting them to share which books had most influenced them or brought them the greatest enjoyment. The thoughtful responses that followed reveal the role books played in shaping public lives and ideas.

Each month, we are featuring four original letters from the collection. Come read what history wrote back.

January's Featured Letters

Agatha Christie
Edna Ferber
Margaret Sanger
Paul Gallico
